BANKING AND RAILWAY STATISTICS, IRELAND.

(DECEMBER)

1897.

TO

HIS EXCELLENCY GEORGE HENRY, EARL CADOGAN, K.G.
Ac., Ac., Ac.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I have the honour to submit to your Excellency the following Tables and remarks relative to Banking in Ireland, and to the amount of the Government Funds, India Stocks, and Guaranteed Land Stock upon which dividends are payable at the Bank of Ireland, together with information concerning the weekly traffic receipts of the Irish Railways for the years 1896-97, and an abstract of the principal railway statistics of Ireland for the ten years 1887-96. The Tables on these subjects are in continuation of those previously issued by this Department.

The information comprised in the Tables relating to Banking and Investment Statistics consists of the total of the deposits and cash balances in the Joint Stock Banks of Ireland on the 31st of December, 1897, and on the corresponding date in each preceding year since the year 1877 inclusive, compiled from confidential returns kindly furnished by the authorities of the various banks; the balance of deposits remaining in Post Office and Trustee Savings Banks on the 31st of December of each year since the year 1877 inclusive, derived from official sources; the total amount (on 31st December in each year since 1877) of Government Funds, India Stocks, and Guaranteed Land Stock,* on which dividends are payable at the Bank of Ireland, with the amount of each description of Stock on 31st December, 1897, kindly supplied by the Governor of the Bank; and the average bank note circulation of the six banks of issue in Ireland in the month of December since 1887, compiled from the Dublin Gazette.

In addition to the tables here mentioned, I have inserted others affording half-yearly comparisons for 1897 and the preceding ten years under each of the heads referred to; these half-yearly comparisons tend to correct any false impression which might be caused by information collected at a period of the year when the Christmas trade produces an increased movement of money.

1. Deposits and Cash Balances in Joint Stock Banks.

The deposits and cash balances in the Joint Stock Banks, in December, 1897, as shown in Table I., stood at £39,300,000 (exclusive of £1,869,000 Government and other Public Balances in the Bank of Ireland), as compared with £39,238,000 at the corresponding period in the year 1896, being an increase of £62,000, or 0·2 per cent., following an increase of £230,000, or 0·6 per cent., at the close of 1896, as compared with the amount for December, 1895, and showing an advance of £9,529,000, or 32 per cent., on the amount for December, 1887, since which period, comparing December with December, there has been a continuous annual increase. It will be seen from the Table that the amount under this heading in December last was also in excess of that for December in any of the 20 years preceding 1897: it was, in fact, the highest amount yet reached. In Table I. (A) the amounts of deposits and cash balances are compared by half-years: it shows that the customary increase in December as compared with June occurred.

2. Savings Banks.

The balances of deposits in Savings Banks consist of two groups—those in the Post Office Savings Banks which are set out in Table II., and those in Trustee Savings Banks, shown in Table III.

It will be observed from Table II. that on the 31st December last the estimated balances in the Post Office Savings Banks in Ireland amounted to £6,706,000, as compared with £6,153,000, for the corresponding date in 1896, being an increase of £553,000, which, although somewhat under the increases in the years 1894 and 1895 (£634,000 in 1894, and £626,000 in 1895), is more than double the highest increase in any previous year since the establishment of these Banks, except the year 1888.

From this Table it appears that with the exception of the first six months of 1893 there was a steady increase in each half year, the amount reaching its maximum in December last, when the balance showed an increase of £263,000 as compared with the amount in June, 1897.

The progress of the accumulation of small savings in Post Office and Trustee Banks in Ireland combined, is shown in Tables IV. and IV. (A.) From Table IV. it will be seen that although the increment is not as great as in any of the three years preceding, there has been a large addition to the savings during the year, the total amount in the Savings Banks in Ireland being £8,942,000 in December, 1897, as compared with £8,319,000 for the corresponding period of the year 1896, and £7,678,000 in 1895, being an increase of £623,000 for the year, following the large increases of £641,000 in the preceding year, £719,000 in 1895, and £740,000 in 1894.

It will also be observed that there has been an increase in each year since 1877, and that the balance in Savings Banks on the 31st December last, was much more than double the amount to the credit of depositors at the close of the year 1877, the first year for which statistics are given in the Table. It may be added that it is the highest amount of which there is record.

Table IV. (A), in which the amount of small savings is set forth by half years, for the past eleven years, shows that during that period, with the exception of the first half of the year 1893, the half-yearly balances in Savings Banks in Ireland continuously increased, and that the respective increases in the several half-yearly periods of 1894, 1895, 1896, and 1897 far exceeded the increase in any preceding half year covered by the Table.

It will be observed from Table VI. (A.) that the usual increase of note circulation in December, as compared with June, took place in the year 1897; the increase on this occasion was £610,000, which is considerably over the average of the preceding ten years, but it should be added that the decrease in June last as compared with the preceding December was somewhat greater than the average fall in the first half of the year.

* There are Six Banks in Ireland authorized to issue Notes, the statistics of which are included in this table. The total authorized issue of Notes for these Banks is £6,354,494.

* See note, p. 17.

The results of the analysis of the foregoing tables are :—

1st. That in December, 1897, there was an increase of Deposits and Cash Balances in the Irish Joint Stock Banks as compared with the corresponding period in 1896, amounting to £62,000, and that the amount of such Deposits and Cash Balances in December last was the highest yet recorded.

2nd. That there was an increase of £736,000 in Deposits and Cash Balances in the Irish Joint Stock Banks in December, 1897, as compared with June, 1897.

- 3rd. That there was an increase of £623,000 in the Deposits in Savings Banks in Ireland in December, 1897, as compared with the close of the year 1896, there having been an increase of £553,000 in the sum in the Post Office Savings Banks, and an increase of £70,000 in the amount in the Trustee Banks.
- 4th. That there was an increase of £288,000 in the Deposits in Savings Banks in December, 1897, as compared with the amount for June in that year.
- 5th. That the amount (in December, 1897) of Government Funds, India Stocks, and Guaranteed Land Stock on which dividends are payable at the Bank of Ireland, shows a decrease of £131,000 as compared with the amount at the close of the preceding year.
- 6th. That in December, 1897, there was an increase of £139,000 in the amount of Government Funds, India Stocks, and Guaranteed Land Stock on which dividends are payable at the Bank of Ireland, as compared with June of the same year.
- 7th. That in December, 1897, there was an increase of £56,000 in the average amount of Bank Note circulation, as compared with the corresponding period of 1896.
- 8th. That there was an increase of £610,000 in the Bank Note circulation in December, 1897, as compared with June of the same year.

5. Railway Statistics.

Table VII., compiled from Returns furnished by the authorities of the several Companies, gives the receipts of Irish Railways, week by week, for the year 1897 compared with those for 1896.

A review of the weekly traffic returns shows that in 44 weeks the receipts exceeded those for the corresponding weeks of the year 1896, and in 8 weeks the receipts were below those for the corresponding periods, with the net result that in the year there was an increase of £56,573, or 3·0 per cent., as compared with the amount received in the preceding year. The total receipts for the year 1897 (52 weeks) were £3,453,982, as against £3,387,409 in 1896, £3,368,282 in 1895, £3,303,739 in 1894, £3,181,043 in 1893, £3,103,651 in 1892, and £3,147,458 in 1891, when the receipts were higher than those for any previous year.

Table VIII. gives some of the principal statistics of Irish Railways during the ten years 1887-96, for comparison with the aggregate figures at foot of Table VII. for 1896-97.

The figures in Table VIII. show the revised amounts as given in the reports of the Board of Trade. The unrevised receipts compiled from the weekly returns furnished to me by the Railway Companies are slightly in excess of the revised amounts, apparently owing to their including some miscellaneous items which do not properly come within the term "traffic receipts"; the difference, however, is small in proportion to the total amount.
